2008 State of County Video Vignettes Now Online

SAN BERNARDINO – Video vignettes featured in the 2008 State of the County – which drew nearly 1,200 people to the Ontario Convention Center on Thursday night – have been posted on Board of Supervisors Chairman Paul Biane’s homepage.

“These short video segments illustrate how San Bernardino County, its 24 incorporated cities, and its unincorporated communities are working together toward one shared vision: to improve quality of life for our more than two million residents,” Biane said.

Each of the five supervisors selected a topic to highlight in the 2008 State of the County videos. First District Supervisor Brad Mitzelfelt’s video vignette addresses public safety; Third District Supervisor Dennis Hansberger’s focuses on arts and tourism in the County, and Fifth District Supervisor Josie Gonzales’ concentrates on creating healthy communities. Fourth District Supervisor Gary Ovitt, who also serves as Vice-Chairman, highlights County economic development efforts in his video, and Chairman Biane address how the county and its cities are addressing environmental challenges in his segment.

A merged version of all five videos can be viewed at www.sbcounty.gov/biane. There’s also a link to the 2008 State of the County video on the San Bernardino County homepage – www.sbcounty.gov.
